INSURANCE AND PRIVACY TERMS:

Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance policy, You have a duty to tell us anything that You know or could reasonably be expected to know that may affect our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before we renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance policy.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know of should know as an insurer; or
- we waive Your duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel your Policy or reduce the amount that we will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If You fail to tell Us, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Privacy

We are committed to handling your personal information in compliance with the privacy laws. We use the personal information you provide to us to quote on and insure your risks and for the other purposes set out in our privacy policy. We may provide your personal information to our Underwriters, Reinsurers (and their representatives) and those we appoint to assist us with claims under your policy.

If you don't provide us with complete information, we cannot properly quote for your insurance and we cannot insure you. You can check the personal information that we hold about you at any time.
